

#UnbeatableTogether

TEAM VOLUNTEER 2023

17 —
25 June

Pass Raphael the balls during the game.

Become #TEAM VOLUNTEER 2023!

In the summer of 2023, the world's largest inclusive sports event will take place for the very first time in Germany. From 17 to 25 June, Berlin will welcome over 7,000 athletes from 190 countries to one of the most important multisport events with 26 sports, 300,000 spectators, 8 venues. To support this unique event, we are looking for people like you – and 20,000 others.

Your involvement:
five days
Your memories:
forever

Your benefits as a volunteer

- Get insights into interesting fields of work
- Meet international athletes and other volunteers
- Free entry to the opening and closing ceremony
- Free entry to all competitions
- Get outfitted with shirts, a hoodie, and a bag
- Meals and beverages everyday
- A great party at the athletes' disco
- Free use of public transport
- A volunteer certificate for your commitment

Requirements

Min. 16 years old as of 1 May 2023 — Min. 5 days availability — German or English languages for communication

SPECIAL OLYMPICS
WORLD GAMES
BERLIN 2023

Special Olympics

The sports movement for people with intellectual disabilities

Special Olympics was founded in 1968 by Eunice Kennedy-Shriver, a sister of John F. Kennedy. Today, Special Olympics has more than 5 million athletes around the world.

The vision: an inclusive society where every single person is equal. The sporting and emotional highlight are the Special Olympics World Games.

JOIN THE MOVEMENT

#TEAMVOLUNTEER2023

Registration until 31 January

Selection January

Assignment February

Volunteer training and fitting March - May

Opening Ceremony 17 June at Olympiastadion

Register here

Register
now as an individual or group

WITH FUNDING FROM

DEUTSCHE STIFTUNG
FÜR ENGAGEMENT
UND EHRENAMT

PREMIUM PARTNERS

REWE

TOYOTA

PARTNERS

schufa