

Information for foreign applicants

General conditions

Foreign applicants who were not granted their university entrance qualification in a German-speaking country have to submit the following additional supportive documentation:

- a) A certified copy of the passport with a valid residence permit; and
- b) A certificate of confirmation of the recognition/acceptance of their university entrance qualification by:

Senatsverwaltung für Bildung, Jugend und Wissenschaft
Zeugnisankennungsstelle

Bernhard-Weiß-Str. 6

10178 Berlin-Mitte

Tel.: 00 49 030 90227-5232, -5220, -6987

OR

Proof of studies/qualifications resulting in the granting of a university entrance in accordance with the assessment proposals of the Central Office for Foreign Education published in the data bank www.anabin.kmk.org in the rubric tertiary studies admission ("Hochschulzugang"), which as such comply with a university entrance qualification for the intended study course.

Authenticated German translations of foreign documents, if need be of reports with an overview of marks, are to be submitted.

- c) Proof of sufficient knowledge of the German language

At the latest on the last day before the start of the course (usually 30.09. or 31.03.), proof of the ability to study in the language must be available. Provisional enrolment is only possible if a confirmation is available on the deadline date that a language examination has been taken but the results are not yet available. The certificate of the passed language examination must be presented within the first month of the semester. If the language examination is not passed, enrolment is withdrawn (§ 15, paragraph 1, number 6 of the Matriculation Regulations (2020)).

The following serve as proof:

- The Certificate in respect of "Deutsche Sprachprüfung....", the test (completed earlier) as proof of proficiency in the German language;
- The Certificate of Testing to prove the eligibility of foreign applicants for studies at tertiary institutions of the Federal Republic of Germany obtained from a German tertiary institution (the assessment test or entrance test – "Feststellungsprüfung"), the test section "Deutsch" to have been passed successfully;
- The test "Deutsch als Fremdsprache" (TestDaF) in all four parts with a minimum result of TDN 4;
- The "Deutsche Sprachdiplom der Kultusministerkonferenz –Zweite Stufe" (DSDII);
- The Extended or Concise German Language Diploma ("Deutsche Sprachdiplom") awarded by the Goethe Institute commissioned by the Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität in Munich;

- The Certificate of proof of having passed the Goethe Certificate C 2: the Extended German Language Diploma ("Großes Deutsches Sprachdiplom" – GDS). The Goethe Certificate C 2: the Extended German Language Diploma ("Großes Deutsches Sprachdiplom" – GDS) replaced the "Zentrale Oberstufenprüfung" (ZOP) of the Goethe Institute, the Concise German Language Diploma and the Extended German Language Diploma as from 01.01.2012.
- In addition proof of the knowledge of German as recognized by bilateral agreements or by arrangements agreed upon by the Conference of Ministers of Culture ("Kultusministerkonferenz") and University Rectors' Conference (Hochschulenrektorenkonferenz) as being sufficient proof of language proficiency for the purpose of commencing university studies:
 - o the proof of "German studies" in the French "Diplom du Baccalauréat" which is granted after attending the bilingual German-French course/class at a secondary school;
 - o The "US Advanced Placement"-test (AP-Test) in the subject German.
- The Certificate "telc Deutsch C1 Hochschule".

Further information on the language tests and diplomas of the Goethe Institute can be obtained from Goethe-Institut Berlin, Neue Schönhauser Str. 20, D-10178 Berlin (Tel.: 00 49 030 25906-3). www.goethe.de.

Information on the TestDaF is available on the website <https://www.testdaf.de> of the TestDaF Institute.

Please note that the KHSB does not conduct any language assessments.
